

Modern Slavery Statement

Twintec is committed to preventing modern slavery and human trafficking in all areas of its business and supply chain. The Group operates internationally, with its head office in Luxembourg and activities including operations within the United Kingdom. Twintec Group has in place a Modern Slavery and Human Trafficking Policy (GCD-019) which supports this commitment.

We operate within the construction sector and work with a range of suppliers and partners. We expect all those we work with to comply with applicable laws and to uphold ethical and responsible standards.

We remain aware of potential risks and are committed to acting responsibly and addressing any concerns that may arise.

Twintec will review this statement annually and continue to assess its approach as the business develops.

This statement is made pursuant to Section 54 of the UK Modern Slavery Act 2015.

Julien Lazzari,
CEO